Wedneſday the Eighteenth of Auguſt, 1652.

Reſolved by the Parliament,

THat the Parliament doth Declare and Order, That any Cattle, Sheep, Horſes, Corn or Grain of any kinde, ſhall or may be Exported by any perſon or perſons within this Commonwealth, from England into Ireland (without paying Cuſtom or Excize in England) ſtrict and good Caution and Security being given at the Cuſtom-Houſes for the Delivery and Sale thereof in the Parliaments Quarters or Gariſons in Ireland, and not elſewhere: And that the Parties ſhall bring back good Certificates from Ireland of the performance thereof.

ORdered by the Parliament, That this Vote be Printed and Publiſhed; And that the Committee of the Navy do ſend this Vote to the ſeveral Ports, and ſee the ſame put in Execution.

Hen: Scobell, Cleric.
Parliamenti.

London, Printed by John Field, Printer to the Parliament of England. 1652.